

Shortlist for euward10 announced

Artists from four countries nominated for the Art Award of the Augustinum Stiftung

Munich. Sixteen artists from Belgium, France, Germany and the Netherlands are in the running for euward10, the prestigious Art Award presented by the Augustinum Stiftung. From 200 applications submitted from across Europe, they were selected by the euward Board of Trustees on 24 October for the euward10 shortlist. The award will be presented at Haus der Kunst in Munich in October 2027.

The euward supports artists who have developed a distinctive form of artistic expression through their individual approach, particularly artists in the context of intellectual, mental and psychological disabilities. The euward offers them an accessible route into the wider cultural sphere.

The following artists have been nominated (in alphabetical order):

Diyana Afsarian (* 1987), Brussels, Belgium
Maaz Ali (* 1995), Nuremberg, Germany
Amelie Bartelsen (* 1988), Hamburg, Germany
Martes Bathori alias Mathias Robert (*1966), Paris, France
Rita Erem (*1959), Kleve, Germany
Mile Jex Franke (* 1991), Cologne, Germany
Cengiz Imamdi (* 1996), Rotterdam, Netherlands
Sylvia Kammermeier (* 2005), Freyung, Germany
Juliane Kreidt (* 2004), Kolbermoor, Germany
Hans Langner (* 1964), Starnberg, Germany
Evelyne Postic (* 1951), Lyon, France
Carla van Slooten (* 1960), Amsterdam, Netherlands
Tobias Tebbe (* 1980), Arnhem, Netherlands
Sabine Tollkühn-Klein (* 1967), Bottrop, Germany
Michael Witte (*1962), Hamburg, Germany
Melanie Woste (* 1983), Soest, Germany

Next spring, an international jury will select the three prize winners from the shortlist. In October 2027, they will receive cash prizes and a catalogue dedicated to their work, with a total value of around € 30,000.

The highlight of euward10 will be an exhibition at Haus der Kunst in Munich featuring works by the prize winners and the other nominated artists. The exhibition will run from 22 October 2027 to 9 January 2028.

euward10 is supported by the Antonie Zauner Stiftung and the Sammlung Goetz. Further information about euward10 is available at www.euward.de.
